

THE BEST PUMPKIN PATCHES

IN THE AUSTIN AREA

Elgin Christmas Tree Farm Pumpkin Patch

Where: 120 Natures Way, Elgin

Cost: $10 and Up

When: October 7th – 29th

Details: Pumpkin patch, Hay Mountain, playground and photo areas. Other available activities include train and hay rides, a giant hay maze, a petting zoo, carnival-style food and more.

Website: www.elginchristmastreefarm.com

Mama Mary's Farm & Pumpkin Patch

Where: 5701 Williamson Road, Creedmore

Cost: $9-$21

When: September 30th - November 12th

Details: Fall-themed activities such as a pumpkin patch, photo ops, hay and barrel train rides, rubber duck races, apple cannon gun shooting, kiddie hay maze, bowling, crafts, food vendors, and more.

Website: www.mamamarysfarm.com

Floating Pumpkin Patch

Where: 601 S. Bagdad Road, Leander

Cost: $5 - $8

When: October 14th

Details: Participants can dive for pumpkins or scoop them out with a net at Robin Bledsoe Pool. Afterward, participants can decorate their pumpkins with a variety of craft items, such as paints, glitter, sequins and more.

Website: www.leandertx.gov

Evergreen Farms

Where: 242 Monkey Road, Elgin

Cost: Free Admission. Tickets $3.50 per activity

When: October 7th – October 30th

Details: the perfect place to go for a fun pumpkin patch near Austin! A variety of fun activities for visitors to enjoy during the fall season. Pumpkins are available for purchase, carving or decorating. Take a free wagon ride into the Christmas tree fields where mini pumpkins are hidden! One ticket gets visitors two mini pumpkins each.

Website: www.evergreen-farms.com/pumpkin-hunt

Dripping Springs Pumpkin Festival

Where: 490 Founders Park Rd., Dripping Springs

Cost: $15

When: September 23rd - October 29th

Details: The festival will feature six themed weekends with over 50 fall-inspired games, activities and attractions including live music, a petting zoo, pony rides and more throughout the five-acre property. Food and drinks available.

Website: www.drippingspringspumpkinfestival.com

Saint Richard's Pumpkin Patch

Where: 1420. E. Palm Valley Blvd., Round Rock

Cost: Varies By Size

When: September 30th – October 31st

Details: Make memories in Round Rock's Pumpkin Patch as they join St. Richard's in raising several thousand dollars to benefit local charities including Round Rock Serving Center, St. Richard's Preschool Scholarships, Stoney Point ROTC, and Youth Missions.

Website: <http://saintrichards.org/pumpkin-patch>

Indian Spring Ranch Pumpkin Patch

Where: 403 Elm View Way, Manchaca

Cost: $8 - $16

When: September 23rd - October 29th

Details: A fun-filled day for visitors to pick out the perfect pumpkin from the pumpkin patch and take advantage of the unique fall-themed photo-ops throughout the property. Also features exotic animals, face painting, a jumping pillow and kids swings and playground.

Website: www.indianspringsranchatx.com

Pumpkin Nights

Where: Pioneer Farms Drive, Austin

When: September 22 – October 30; 6-11 pm

Details: A half-mile walking path made of over 5,000 hand-carved real and synthetic pumpkins, including stunning displays such as a ghostly pirate ship, 40-foot-long dragon, and an undersea wonderland. In Pumpkin Village, visitors can indulge in food and beverages, snap fun photos, and enjoy the fire show and other activities.

Website: www.pumpkinights.com

Georgetown Sweet Eats Fruit Farm

Where: 14400 E. State Hwy. 29, Georgetown

Cost: $19.95 - $24.95

When: September 9th - November 12th

Details: A fall festival on 4.5 acres including a 2-acre corn-filled area with pumpkins; fireworks shows on Friday and Saturday nights in October; and activities such as Zoofari, pig races, petting zoo, apple cannons, food trucks and more.

Website: www.sweeteats.com

Texas Pumpkin Fest

Where: 8760 FM 2243, Leander

Cost: $10-$13

When: September 30th – October 29th

Details: Pumpkin bowling and yard games, photo-ops, and the big hay mountain. They also have train rides and a small hay maze. Food trucks and alcohol on site. Some activities are included with price of admission and some cost extra.

Website: <https://texaspumpkinfest.com>

Sweet Berry Farm

Where: 1801 FM 1980, Marble Falls

Cost: Varies

When: Daily, Year Round

Details: Popular destination for fall festivities, offering a wide range of activities for visitors of all ages – and is one of our very favorite pumpkin patches near Austin! Hayrides take you on a scenic tour of the farm, while their corn maze is one of the best corn mazes in Texas! Pumpkin picking is a must-do activity for those looking to take home a festive decoration and their Sand Art is a fun hand-crafted souvenir as well.

Website: <https://sweetberryfarm.com>

Robinson Family Farm

Where: 2651 Bob White Rd., Temple

Cost: $10-$13

When: September 30th – October 29th

Details: Pumpkin bowling and yard games, photo-ops, and the big hay mountain. They also have train rides and a small hay maze. Food trucks and alcohol on site. Some activities are included with price of admission and some cost extra.

Website: <https://texaspumpkinfest.com>